CONVOCATION SET FOR THURSDAY AFTERNOON

John Pollock, of William and Mary Will Deliver Address.

TICKETS AVAILABLE NOW

Elaborate Ceremonies With Mark Presentation of Degrees—Will Begin at 2 P. M.

The February Convocation for graduates of George Washington University will be held on Thursday afternoon, February 22, at the Memorial Continental Hall. The program will begin at 2 o'clock, with the academic procession, but the doors will be opened at 1 o'clock to facilitate seating.

The orchestra will open the program with selections from Hegner and Massenet, which will be followed by the entrance march, Meyerbeer's "Coronation." The Reverend Lucius Charles Clarke, A. B., S. T. B., D. D., Chancellor of the American University, will give the prayer.

The Convocation address will be delivered by John Garland Pollock, LL. D., head of the Department of Government and Citizenship in the college of William and Mary. He has not yet made public the subject of his speech.

Columbian College will be the first to receive their degrees, and they are to be followed by the graduates of the College of Engineering, Teachers' College, Law School, and School of Graduate Studies in the order named. The benediction and two more selections from the orchestra will complete the program.

Tickets will be issued first to graduates, and then to students who apply for them. Seats will be reserved for the faculty. Ticket-holders are requested to come early in order to obtain seats. The public will be admitted without tickets to the balcony.

PROFESSORS AND STUDENTS ENTERTAIN AT LAW BANQUET

Senator Brookhart Speaks of Reputation for Honor—Clephane and Brandenburg Complete 25th Year of Teaching.

The Law School Banquet, which was held last Saturday evening at the Calra, will go down in the annals of the University as one of the finest social events of the year. "It was," in the words of Dean Ferson, who presided as toastmaster, "the instance of the Law School Faculty enjoying good fellowship and cooperation in the form of faculty and undergraduates, breaking bread together at a common table." Members of the faculty vied with the students in furnishing the evening's entertainment. Lead by "Upsey" and "Hector," as the embryo barristers called Professors Updegraff and Spalding, the room fairly rang with songs and jokes.

A very impressive moment occurred when the Dean called attention to the fact that the occasion marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of Col. Walter C. Clephane's acceptance of a professorship in the Law School. The gathering rose in homage to Professor Clephane, who responded as is his wont, by a few well chosen remarks which were received with prolonged enthusiasm. Respects were also paid to Professor Brandenburg, who has also served twenty-five years in the Law Faculty and to "Daddy" Ernest.

Dean Ferson remarked, in the formal part of his address, that George Washington Law School possesses an ideal situation which is not to be found in any other school of the American Law School Association, namely, the stabilizing influence of professors who are also active practitioners.

The presidents of the three classes were introduced by members of their classes. Bartley Corbin represented the first year class, Robert Armstrong the juniors, and Joseph Jordan the seniors.

The main address of the evening was given by Senator Brookhart. He commented upon the success of the G. W. Law system as heard of throughout the country. Mr. Joseph W. Cox also spoke on the behalf of the Law Alumni.

Great credit is due to Clara Cain and members of the Law School Senate, under whose auspices the banquet was held.

HATCHET DANCE TOMORROW NIGHT AT KAPPA SIGMA

Editor Invites all Students of University—Tickets Sell for $1.50.

When you work, work hard. When you play, play harder, is the motto of the Hatchet staff, who will turn out en masse tomorrow night, prepared to enjoy themselves to the limit at their annual Valentine dance, held at the Kappa Sigma Frat house, 1758 N Street N. W.

The mid-year exams are over, and there will be nothing to prevent them from having the time of their lives. Although the dance is given primarily for the staff, the rest of the University is urged to attend. Special features are promised by Robert M. Bolton, the editor, who assures us that if we do not have a rollicking time it will not be the fault of the music and refreshments. Tickets may be obtained at the Hatchet office or at the Kappa Sigma Frat house. Through an error in printing the address stated on the tickets is 1758 U Street N. W., instead of 1758 N Street, but as everybody knows where Kappa Sig house is, a word to the wise is sufficient.

Don't forget! The time, 9 o'clock sharp. The place, Kappa Sigma house, 1758 N Street N. W. The price, $1.50. The dance will be informal. The chaperones will be Secretary and Mrs. Kayser and Mrs. Edith Bolton.

DOYLE HEAD OF CORNELL SUMMER SCHOOL SPANISH

Professor Henry Grattan Doyle of the Department of Romance Languages, has been appointed to take charge of the work in Spanish at the Summer School of Cornell University during the coming summer. Professor Doyle will give three courses: "Spanish Drama in the Golden Age," "The Nineteenth Century Spanish Novel," and "Spanish for Teachers." Regular members of the Cornell faculty will give courses in Spanish for beginners, intermediate Spanish, and Spanish conversation. Cornell also maintains a "Casa Espanola," where students may live in a Spanish atmosphere during the summer session.

Professor Doyle served in the same capacity at Cornell during the summer of 1920.

COLLEGIATE SCHOLARSHIP PRIZE FOR BEST SPEECH

George Washington University has been invited to send two representatives to the District of Columbia Inter-collegiate Public Speaking Contest, which will be conducted under the auspices of the National Library Society. The other colleges that will be represented in the contest include Georgetown, Catholic University, and American University. The prize is a year's scholarship in the school of the winner's choice.

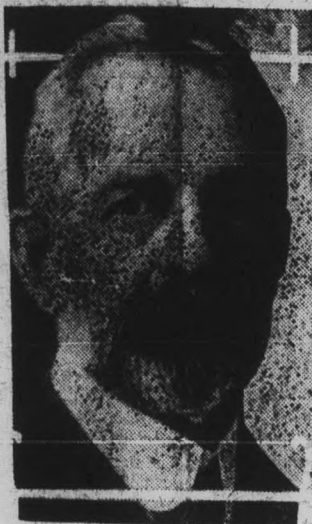

The subject selected is, "Resolved, That Capital Punishment Should be Abolished in the United States and the Several States." The speaker to select his own side of the question. Preliminary trials will be held in the Law School on Wednesday evening, February 21st.

COUNCIL MEETS FEB. 20

The next regular meeting of the Student Council will be held February 20, 1923, at 8 o'clock in Lisner Hall. All members are urged to be present, as there is some very important business to be taken up.

NOTICE

All girls belonging to the W. U. C. must pay their dues in full before February 26 if they wish to appear in the Cherry Tree. Pay dues to Elizabeth Kendrick or Bernice Valey.

PRESIDENT HODGKINS

JUNIOR PLAY WILL BE GIVEN IN MASONIC TEMPLE

Final Cast Selected and Rehearsals Rapidly Progressing to Near Perfection.

The Junior Week play is making rapid strides toward a successful run. Director Becker announced that he was pleased with the way the cast is working. Rehearsals have advanced to such a point that characters and under-studies have been selected to advance the play to an amateur success that would open the eyes of many professionals. The play will be given in the Masonic Auditorium on Tuesday the 26th.

The management has had considerable trouble in obtaining a stage auditorium and sets for the scenes. Mr. Becker has been able to get draperies and a front drop from Mr. Sherwood of the National Theater. Through the courtesy of the President Theater all sets and draperies will be handled by union employees, and the Strand has agreed to furnish two sets. All of these courtesies are for nominal sums.

SEND DEBATERS TO CORNELL AND GOUCHER

Misses Levy, Newmann, and M. Wilgus, affirmative, will debate the question of the ship subsidy with Goucher College, at Baltimore, and with Cornell University, at Ithaca, N. Y. Misses Cain, Hankin, Yates, negative, will challenge the Swarthmore team and will meet an opposition at home. The debates will take place in March, although the dates have not been definitely decided.

Professors Collier and Updegraff are coaching the fair sex debaters.

200 STUDENTS FAIL TO PAY ACTIVITY PLEDGE

Over two hundred students have failed to pay their first installment of the Student Activity Tax. Those failing to pay their pledge by February 15, will receive no Cherry Tree. Owing to this delinquency the Student Activity Budget is over a thousand dollars behind, and if the necessary money is not forthcoming within the next few days, basketball and other activities will have to be curtailed.

MIXER TO-NIGHT

George Washington Medical Freshmen will hold its second mixer of the year in Lisner Hall to-night. Relaxing from the strain of a final exam held on Monday the Freshmen promise to make the best of it. A good orchestra and plenty of refreshments will do the honors in the entertainment line.

COLUMBIAN DEBATING ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Unusual Eloquence Marks Fiery Speeches of Future Lawyers.

Friday, February 9 was chosen as "Election Night" of Columbian Debating Society. Many of the members were present for the occasion, some of whom made eloquent speeches for the various nominees of the several offices to be filled for the remaining year.

After appropriate speeches, which could only be surpassed by politicians at the Democratic or Republican Conventions, Scheuffer was elected the "Chief Executive," Stevens, vice president; Wilgus, secretary; McRae, treasurer; Hayercraft, press representative; and M. Wright, critic. All officers were unanimously elected.

Scheuffer, Stevens, M. Wilgus, and Hayercraft are on the Intercollegiate Debating Teams, while McRae and M. Wright have participated in several local debates. Mr. Scheuffer has been exceedingly active in the society and succeeds Mr. Reese, who filled his office in an eminently satisfactory manner.

The society proposes to promote public speaking in the University, and all students are cordially invited to become members. A debate every Friday at Law School at 2.

DR. BRIGHAM TO CONDUCT EUROPEAN TRIPS AGAIN

Dr. Gertrude R. Brigham, instructor in history of art, will personally conduct tours in Europe next summer, giving special attention to the arts and industries of the new Europe. Members of the University are invited to join the party, and those interested in going as assistants should see Dr. Brigham, as several assistants are needed.

The tours will begin June 23, when the parties sail from Montreal, and will include travels in England, Holland, Belgium, and France (the first tour ending there); Germany, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland, and Italy (the latter to be covered by the second and third tours, by those desiring a more extended tour); the third tour ending September 6, with the possibility of a fourth tour, lasting a month longer, covering the Near East if the political conditions there warrant travel.

MITCHELL WILL GIVE LECTURES ON POETRY

Elmer Louis Kayser, secretary of the University, has announced a fourth course of eight lectures by Langdon Mitchell, poet and playwright, on "The Religious Aspects of Poetry." The lectures will be delivered on Thursday afternoons at 5 o'clock, beginning February 15th, and continuing until April 5th, except the second lecture, which will be given February 21st, Wednesday, at the same hour.

Students of the University will be admitted to the lectures free of charge. There is a charge for the general public of five dollars for the course, or of one dollar for each lecture. Tickets may be had on application in writing to the secretary of the University, 2033 G Street, or on personal application at the office of the cashier at the same address.

The course is announced follows: February 15: I. Poetry. Man's need of it; February 21: II. What is Love? Lyrical Poetry; March 2: III. The Revolution of Nature, Reflective Poetry; March 8: IV. Confidence in God, Religious Poetry; March 15: V. Man Among Men, Shakespeare; March 22: VI. What is Evil? Job; March 29: VII. What Should We Do? The New Testament; April 5: VIII. The Kingdom of Heaven, The New Testament.

TRACK SQUAD ENTERS G. U. RELAY CARNIVAL

Will Be At Convention Hall Next Wednesday at 7.30 P. M.

EXPECT GOOD SHOWING

Tolson Out on Account of Injuries, But Henderson Will Act as Captain.

George Washington will be represented at the Georgetown Relay Carnival, to be held at Convention Hall next Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock by a track squad of fifteen men, including a relay team.

Strong competition will be had in every event on the program of the meet as many national track stars have entered. The G. W. squad is expected to do well considering the facilities available for and conditions under which training is conducted.

The relay team will participate in a mile relay event, though the teams against which it will compete have not as yet been announced. Coach Proby has been giving his quarter-milers some stiff practice, and the team will probably be selected from Henderson, Laux, Grass, Myers, Burgess, Peake, and Johnson, all of whom have shown up well. Unfortunately on account of injuries received last week, Captain Tolson, a member of last year's relay team, will be unable to participate. However, E. G. Henderson, who is a strong 440-yard man and a member of the Varsity squad of 1921, has been appointed floor captain for the Georgetown meet and it is believed the team will be a winner under his leadership.

Coach Proby is gradually developing a well-balanced squad for the outdoor season and has over twenty-five candidates working on the track. He expects to report, as much interest is being manifested in track this year. Those who expect to join the squad are urged by the coach to do so at the earliest possible date, and they should get in touch with Manager Tracy (telephone Franklin 3581) to obtain any desired information relative to practice dates, etc.

WINSHIP URGES COLLEGES TO RESTRICT ENROLLMENT

Dr. A. E. Winship, of Boston, Mass., who is the editor of the Journal on Education, and who for forty years has been one of the leading authorities on American education, spoke last Friday night to the Faculty Club, in the club's rooms, 719 Twenty-first Street.

Dr. Winship has been a leader in the education of the American people, and he made a statement that there has been a very great increase in student bodies of the universities and colleges throughout the country, which shows that the young people realize that a higher and specialized education is needed. He also stated that the universities and colleges throughout the United States should restrict the enrollment by making the entrance requirements harder, and to specialize more deeply in the subjects that they list in their catalogues.

Dean Henning, the president of the Faculty Club, presided at this meeting, and he is to speak at the next meeting of the club on "Anatole France."

COLUMBIAN WOMEN GIVE BENEFIT CARD PARTY

The annual benefit given by the Columbian Women at George Washington University this year will be in the form of a card party for the benefit of the scholarship fund, and will take place at Wardman Park Hotel on February 25, at 2 o'clock. There will be tables of both bridge and five hundred and all students of the University are invited to attend.

TICKETS FOR CONVOCATION

All students who desire tickets for the Convocation Exercises can obtain them upon request at the office of the secretary of G. W., Mr. Kayser, 2033 G Street.

KAPPA DELTA CELEBRATES

Kappa Delta Society celebrated the close of examination week with a delightful informal dance on Saturday night at the chapter house, 1517 Rhode Island Avenue.

WASHINGTON, D. C. February 16, 1923

Good Luck to You

George Washington's birthday is the date set for Convocation exercises. There is a special significance in the fact that the men and women who graduate from this University should receive their diplomas on the anniversary of the birth of the man the school is named for.

When they receive those diplomas they will start out on a life full of trials and troubles that must be overcome before success is finally reached. George Washington's birthday will mark the day of their birth into the great business and professional worlds. It is up to them to work for the good name of their University as George Washington worked for the preeminence of his country.

You, students, who are launching yourselves on your many and varied careers, must always remember the duty you owe your school. That duty sticks by you all through your life. You must always keep in mind that you are graduates of George Washington University, and must always conduct yourselves as such. Protect the good name of that school. Make yourself a leader in your vocation, and then G. W. will look at you with pride, and you will remember her as the school that made that success possible.

Help Junior Week

Junior Week draws near with all of its splendor and brilliance. We are promised a celebration that will surpass all the events of its kind in the past. Are we going to have a good time? If we do not, no one will be to blame but ourselves.

There is something more to consider, however, than the socially successful week we are looking forward to. We must consider those who are working constantly to make Junior Week a financial success as well as a social one.

Four events have been scheduled, the prom, the reception, the rotating tea, and the play. The rotating tea is the only feature that is new. The play has been included in Junior Week schedules before. The staging of four such events in the short space of one week is a very serious and difficult undertaking for those who have charge of the week's enterprises.

It is the duty of every student at the University to give his whole-hearted support to all of these separate functions. This means encouraging the attendance of other students and their friends, besides personal attendance. See to it that everyone you know is there. We are all going to look back on this week with satisfaction from the standpoint of its social brilliance, but we must also be able to remember a full Junior pocketbook as well.

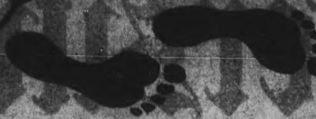

We Are Going to Beat G. U.

George Washington's track team is to enter the Georgetown University track meet next Wednesday. These men have been faced with a great lack of training facilities. Nevertheless, they are going into this contest fully confident that they will be victorious. That is the spirit that overcomes all obstacles. It is to be regretted that this winning spirit does not prevail over the men in all the activities of this University.

Our track athletes are better in their field than the athletes in any other sport of this University. We have men in this sport who are contenders and close rivals for first places in the various events included in any track meet. They will, beyond a doubt, give the Georgetown boys a close race and are sure to win first places in some of the events.

Every student at G. W. should go to this meet to lend their support to the team. Nothing could help the Buff and Blue athletes more than the cheers of a G. W. audience; nothing could impede their success more than the absence of that audience. Go to this contest; root for your team; and you will leave with a feeling of both satisfaction and pride. Why? Because George Washington will have won.

Footprints

"Great men leave behind them Footprints on the sands of time."

WILLIAM M. BALLINGER.

William Ballinger, member of Junior Prom Committee, was graduated from Central High School in 1917. Entered G. W. in fall of 1917. Treasurer of Junior Class C. C. in 1920. Editor of Cherry Tree in 1920. Treasurer of G. W. Club in 1921. Glee Club in 1921 and 1922. President Freshman Class Medical College in 1921. Member of G. W. Tennis team 1919 through 1922. Received A. B. degree in 1921. Member of Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity. Pyramid Honor Society and Pi Delta Epsilon Honorary Journalistic Fraternity.

ELIZABETH KENDRICK.

Elizabeth Kendrick, president of Teachers' College Senior Class, graduated from Central High School in 1918. Was on Broeky staff there. Entered G. W. fall of 1918. Member of Glee Club four years. In 1920 and 1921 was housekeeper of W. U. C. In 1921 and 1922 vice president of Glee Club. In 1923 president of Y. W. C. A. Undergraduate representative of Y. W. C. A. Member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority and Sphinx Honorary Sorority.

THE SPY

President.

After much hesitation and postponements the Presidents will begin on Sunday evening their presentation of "Buddies," George V. Hobart's pretty comedy with music. Due to the efforts of Manager Smith the company has been augmented by several players of merit from New York. The play will be remembered as a post-war attraction, starring Peggy Wood and Donald Brian, and deals with the love troubles of an American soldier in France. A pretty production is promised.

Garrick.

The Garrick is beginning to bat high in the theater league. Next week Grant Mitchell and the Nugents bring that delectable comedy, "Kempy" to town with the opening on Monday evening. The play is the product of the Nugents, and is one of the high lights of the last New York season. For those who like clean, clever comedy we can suggest nothing better.

National.

J. Hartley Manners presents Laurette Taylor at the National Monday night in "Humoresque," by that famous writer of sob tales, Fannie Hurst. This is Miss Taylor's first appearance since the first of last season when she appeared in "The National Anthem." She is capable of carrying almost any burden and the attraction contains possibilities.

Poll's.

Poll's do their big bit next week when they open Sunday night showing John Drew and Mrs. Leslie Carter in the Selwyn's production of W. Somerset Maugham's comedy, "The Circle." Starring these two idols of the American theater this play enjoyed great popularity in New York last season and Washington will undoubtedly give it a welcome.

This Week.

President: Twelfth and final week of "Able's Irish Rose," the Jewish-Irish racial marriage problem by Anna Nichols. This attraction has shattered all previous local records for length of run, and this is the last opportunity for those to see it who have not yet done so.

Garrick: Walter Hampden, super-Shakespearean artist, appears in a se-

Have You Old Stamps and Coins?

Did you ever stop to realize that old stamps and coins are worth lots of money? Some of the first stamps and coin collections recently found in old attics and trunks have brought fortunes. Lots of old stamps burnt up yearly would bring large sums of money if the owners would only realize their value. Chas. Kohlen, of 615 Fifteenth Street N. W., buys and sells stamps and coin collections. He will be glad to tell you free of charge what the value of yours is.

He Reached the Top

THE Vice-President of a great life insurance company who began his career as an agent has this to say to seniors who are about to graduate from college:

"If you love work and desire to pursue an honorable, useful and lucrative mission in life this is the business for you to take up. Life insurance salesmanship offers a fine field for the energies of the splendid young men in our colleges.

"That this is true is demonstrated by those college men who have taken up life insurance for they have shown that the college man is fit for this kind of a job and that the job also is fit for the college man.

"The work of the life insurance salesman is distinguished by independence and opportunity for directing his own. It gives all possible opportunity for individual initiative and a chance to make an ample income at an age when most fellows are struggling on a wage pittance."

That is the story of one who began at the bottom and reached the top without the help of a college education. The advantages are with you who graduate from college. Before deciding your career make inquiries of the "Agency Department."

SPEEDY QUINT OF C. U. DEFEATS G. W. 26-9

Daily, Klopsch, and Gosnell Play Well For Hatchettes.

C. U.'s speedy basketball quint defeated the Hatchettes in the Coliseum on February 6, by the score of 26 to 9. Both teams passed a great deal and took very few shots at the basket, in what appeared to be a well played contest.

C. U. had control of the ball most of the time, and worked it around the floor until some player was in position for a good shot. G. W. guarded quite well, but could not stand the pace that the Brooklanders were setting. The half ended 17 to 5 in C. U.'s favor. Several bad passes by G. W. men when they had opportunities to score, were a setback to their scoring possibilities. An exhibition of some good basketball playing was given by the C. U. guards, Lynch and Lawler, who guarded well and came down the floor like a streak. Capt. Daily, Klopsch, and Gosnell were the best of the Buff and Blue tossers.

The line-up and summary:

C. U.	Position	G. W.	Position
Breslin	Forward	Gosnell	Forward
Eberts	Forward	Klopsch	Forward
Fitzgerald	Center	Brown	Center
Lawler	Guard	Hyde	Guard
Lynch	Guard	Daily	Guard

Substitutions, Altrup for Brown, Goldstein for Hyde, Hyde for Goldstein, Solomon for Gosnell, Gosnell for Solomon, Brown for Altrup, O'Connor for Fitzgerald, Larkin for Eberts. Goals from floor, Klopsch 2, Daily, Breslin 2, Eberts 4, Lynch 3, Lawler. Free tosses, Klopsch 1 of 5, Gosnell 2 of 4, Altrup missed 1, Lynch 6 of 7. Referee, Mr. Hughes. Umpire, Mr. Fitzgerald. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

CENTRAL GAME CANCELED

The George Washington Freshmen and the Central High School game that was scheduled as a preliminary game to the Fordham-George Washington game Friday night was canceled by the disqualification of the Central High team by the principal of Central late Friday afternoon. There was a short preliminary game between the Washington Reserves and the G. W. Fresh. No score was taken.

BROOKLANDERS DEFEAT G. W. FRESHMEN—36 TO 7

G. W.'s Freshmen were badly beaten by the C. U. boys in a preliminary contest to the Varsity clash of the same institutions, last Tuesday night by the score of 36 to 7. The Hatchette yearlings were way off form and could not seem to find themselves.

The C. U. Freshmen have a fast combination that is practically as good as the first team, and they lived up to their reputation. G. W. was held scoreless during the entire first half, which ended 20 to 0.

EDITOR ON HERALD STAFF

The editor of the Hatchet, Robert Bolton, has obtained a position as cub reporter on the staff of the Washington Herald.

Bolton came to G. W. in September of 1922, from Emerson Institute. He was appointed assistant news editor during his first year on the Hatchet. He was also treasurer of his class, and prominently engaged in all the Soph-Fresh affairs. This year he was appointed editor in chief of the school paper. In the midst of January review Bolton announced that he was a reporter on the Herald.

For two weeks he has held his own amongst the "regulars" and "cubs," and has worked on some important assignments.

SIGMA TAU ELECTS

Sigma Tau, George Washington University's Honorary Engineering Fraternity, held its largest meeting of the year on last Monday night at the Travelers Club, 1719 I Street, when it initiated Dean Miller into honorary membership and four engineering students into active membership. The four students entering were Robert Wendt, Daniel Lloyd, John Eisinger, and Lawrence (Babe) Hyde.

President Hodgkins, an honorary member of the fraternity, was present and gave a short talk on the ideals of the fraternity, which are scholarship, practicability, and sociability, and exhorted the chapter to even greater efforts in raising the standards among the student engineers.

ALUMNI QUARTERLY SOON

Grip is no respecter of persons. Due to the illness of members of his family, Professor Kayser has been unable to get out the "Alumni Quarterly," but states that the Quarterly will be out before mid-winter convocation. Anyone having copy to turn in, please do so as soon as possible.

PROF EXHIBITS PAINTING

Professor Albert L. Harris, instructor in architecture, has among the paintings on exhibition in the thirty-second Annual Exhibit of the Washington Artists, a painting done by him entitled "The River." The painting is exhibited in the Corcoran Art Gallery.

TEAS FOR WOMEN

Dean Rose wishes to announce to all girls that the series of teas which she is giving for University women are being held every first and third Wednesday of the month, at the Women's University Club rooms, 2027 G Street. All girls are invited.

SENIOR TEACHERS ELECT

The Seniors of Teachers' College met recently and organized. The following officers were elected: Betty Kendrick, president; Margaret Fravel, vice president; Dorothy Nichols, secretary; Martha Delbridge, treasurer.

MEDICAL FRAT ENTERTAINS.

Alpha Kappa Kappa medical fraternity had a ripping good time last Thursday the 8th, when its members staged a dance to which Alumni and prospective medical students were invited. A fine orchestra and good floor besides plenty of punch added materially in the pervading feeling of good fellowship.

The Phillippinensian Club gave a dance at the Washington Club on Wednesday, January 31.

FORDHAM DEFEATS HOME TEAM BY CLOSE SCORE

Good Teamwork and Goal Shooting Gives Visitors Six Point Lead at Final Whistle.

Fordham University's basketball team carried away the honors last Friday night when they defeated George Washington's regular team at the Central Coliseum.

Though outplayed by the Hatchettes, Fordham quint took good advantage of every opportunity and scored continuously throughout the game. On two or three occasions fumbling the ball and poor pass work gave Fordham the chance to score. In addition fouls committed at a critical time gave the visitors a chance to let McMahon drop in a few free tosses. Fordham was leading at the end of the first half by 15 to 11, and held the lead throughout the game, which ended 29 to 23.

The line-up and summary:

Fordham	Position	G. W.	Position
Kavanaugh	L. F.	Gosnell	Forward
Sandry	R. F.	Klopsch	Forward
E. McMahon	C.	Brown	Center
Healy	L. G.	Daily	Guard
Manning	R. G.	Goldstein	Guard

Substitutions, Hyde for Manning, J. McMahon for E. McMahon. Goals from floor, Kavanaugh 7, Manning 2, Gosnell 3, Klopsch, Daily 2, Goldstein 1. Free tosses, E. McMahon 11 of 14, Klopsch 9 of 11. Referee, J. Y. Hughes. Umpire, J. Fitzgerald. Time of periods, 20 minutes.

Hear the Brox Sisters

the hit of the Music Box Revue, sing
"BRING ON THE PEPPER"
A spicy bit from the biggest show hit of years. Bonnie Krueger's Famous Orchestra adds a full Jazz Band introduction. Like all Brunswick Records, it is a true reproduction—crystal clear; every word plain, not a note missed or slurred. Good as going to the show. "Come on Home," another Brox Sisters' hit, is on the other side.

lection of classics. This is superlative stuff and is highly recommended to those who love the classics beautifully portrayed.

National: Jerome Kern and Anne Gardner fail to put the vital spark in their new musical comedy, "The Bunch and Judy." Dillingham has given it beautiful settings, and the Astaires and Dooleys do their best to put it across, but it remains the poorest thing we have seen bear the Dil-lingham-Kern brand.

Poll's: McIntyre without his Heath in "Red Pepper," their latest musical offering. Good stuff if you like minstrel jokes. The chorus works hard, but we're convinced that there is not one under 25. A little plot, passable music, but it remains a mediocre musical show.

Pick Ups

In the neighborhood of 60 colleges are actively engaged this season in shooting small bore rifle matches by telegraph.

College men at Stanford have put the college girls in three classes:
"Those who make learning their all-compelling star in a college education; those who seek a good time and come to college because it is the rage now-a-days; and those who are planning a good marriage in the favorable atmosphere created by the ratio of 500 young women to 2,000 young men." Incidentally it might be mentioned that five men on the football team at Butler College are married. Look out, hubby, don't get hurt!

At the Philadelphia tennis conferences held recently, a movement was started to abolish the word "Love" from the scoring, since the word is so effeminate for such a battle. If love can be taken out of business, it should be taken out of tennis. It doesn't mean anything anyhow—that is, in tennis.
It is unusual that the abandoning of "love" should start in Philadelphia, the City of Brotherly Love.

urday, trunk.

A new magazine has been added to the list of undergraduate publications at Harvard University. It is a quarterly journal of constructive thought, entitled the "Gad-Fly," and put out by the Liberal Club for the benefit of its members. Its policy will be to contain articles on politics, studies, poetries, and affairs of modern interest. The first issue consisted of 40 pages, and was limited to 100 copies.

At Young University for the purpose of raising funds for the Junior a vaudeville show. Worthwhile of consideration.

Co-eds at Michigan Agricultural College are asserting their independence

The Naval Athletic Association realized practically sufficient funds from the Navy-Penn football team at Pennsylvania and the Navy-Penn State game in Washington this season to cover the cost of the new baseball field and stadium now in process of construction on the Government reservation.

A recent survey of the University of Wisconsin shows that 60 per cent of the men students at the University are earning part or all of their college expenses. Why not survey George Washington University and see by how much we beat that percentage?

She: "Do you realize to whom you

He: "Not so fast. I am the son of an American doc."

WITH THE ALUMNI

Wilbur John Carr, LL. M., '99, is called, by the writer of an interesting story in the Saturday Evening Post of January 27, 1923, "the little father of the consuls," and as director of the Consular Service of the United States is said to have a "name to conjure with where consuls of the United States of America are concerned."

The Executive Committee in charge of the monthly "get-together" meetings of the alumni, has opened these luncheons to the women graduates of the University.

Mildred Phoebus, Class '16, is the regional expert for South America in the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Affairs.

Walter Andrew Bloedorn, Class '15, lieutenant commander, Medical Corps, U. S. Navy, who has just recently completed post-graduate courses in internal medicine and diseases of the heart, in London and Vienna, is now instructor in cardiovascular diseases at the Naval Medical School, Washington.

Thought there for awhile that they were keeping those exam grades so that they could send them out for Valentines.

SPORT NOTES

College diamond stars are very much in demand at the present time, one was paid $5,000 for just "signing the papers," given $800 monthly, and promised 50 per cent of his selling price should he be transferred.

North Carolina State has scheduled several local nines for games this spring. Maryland, C. U., and Navy will be met on a northern trip, starting April 26.

"Feix" Aitrop, last year's Varsity center, has finally donned a suit and reported for practice. He should give the men working in that position at present plenty of competition.

Some keen competition is going on between G. W.'s basketball men to be selected as members of the squad to make the southern trip. This five-game trip arranged by Manager Bettelheim, is being looked forward to with no small amount of anticipation.

Capt. Kenyon, of Georgetown's
"nine" received the trophy for the 1922 collegiate baseball championship at an athletic dinner in Philadelphia last week. Princeton was presented the football crown for the past season, and Penn was given the two-mile relay championship award.

Tom Gormley has replaced Jim Dooley as coach of the C. U. football team. Gormley, before coaching the C. U. Frosh, played at Georgetown and Catholic University in the tackle position. Hegarty, also a former Georgetown star, will tutor the backfield men.

G. W.'s Freshmen are very anxious to conquer the Central basketball in their game this evening. Several former local high school players are members of the Frosh team, and that old rivalry against Central still exists.

G. U.'s riflemen scored a victory over Lafayette marksmen by a 391 to 342 score. The Hilltoppers have beaten Lafayette in three sports during the past year, with the football, basketball, and rifle teams registering wins.

"Jimmy" Connolly, G. U.'s crack runner, recently broke the 2/3 mile world record with a 2.43 3/5 min. mark in one of the most spectacular races ever witnessed at Madison Square Garden.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

Some question and confusion having arisen as to just what is the finally approved basketball schedule, Manager Edwin S. Bettelheim, Jr., announces it as follows:

Friday, February 16, vs. Virginia
Military Inst. (at Lexington).
*Saturday, February 17, vs.
Lynchburg (at home).
Tuesday, February 20, vs. St.
John's (at home).
Saturday, February 24, vs. Catholic University (at Brookland).
Wednesday, February 28, vs. St.
John's (at Annapolis).

*February 17, game probably played at Arcade.
